Taking the Journey with Tania Gleave

July 8 to 13, 2012 • Ages 8 - 12

Young artists ages 8-12 will discover the Journey of Artistic Practice with Tania Gleave, experimenting in a variety of mediums including drawing, watercolour and acrylic painting, and printmaking throughout the week. An emphasis on individual skill development, understanding personal style, achieving success and... having fun! An over-riding theme of working with the Paradise Valley environment and its inhabitants will be a central part of all activities. Daily recreation programs will feature canoeing, cave exploration, hiking, archery, outdoor challenge games and swimming. Visits by guest artists will add additional inspiration and excitement to the week.

Tania Gleave

Tania Gleave is a Vancouver based artist who's work combines an interest in the challenges of the human experience with deep satisfaction that comes from exploring new combinations of materials and techniques. Tania has a diploma in Textile Art and Design at Capilano College and has studied art at Emily Carr Institute of Art and Design. Her mixed media work is inspired by the vast array of people, experiences, and environments she has encountered during her working travels. Tania has participated in many solo and group art exhibitions in Canada and the US.

The Realm of Ideas with Etienne Zack

July 15 to 20, 2012 • Ages 13 - 18

Talented young artists ages 13-18 will explore the variety of spaces that Paradise Valley offers. Working with Etienne Zack, students will be encouraged to look at spaces as both a site of production and a site for exhibition. Students will work in small studio groups and be guided in their production of contemporary art works by a team of art teachers. This program provides the serious art student with a once in a lifetime opportunity to expand their knowledge of visual culture in a variety of media. An emphasis on experimentation with materials and processes will be a major part of all studio activities. All students will be encouraged to develop a personal portfolio throughout the week. Daily recreation is optional for secondary aged campers. In non-instructional times, students can choose to join planned activities such as swimming, hiking, canoeing and other outdoor activities. Presentations by guest artists will add additional inspiration and excitement to the week

Etienne Zack

Etienne Zack is one of Canada's fastest rising art stars. His work pushes the envelope of contemporary painting, playing with the discarded objects of visual culture and environments of art production and exhibition. Etienne was born in Montreal, Quebec and studied art at Concordia University and at the Emily Carr College of Art and Design. Etienne currently resides and works in Vancouver BC, and Los Angeles California. His work has been exhibited and collected nationally and internationally.
