JAYWALKING ON ELDON ROAD

Over the past while the traffic patrollers have noticed some parents jaywalking across Eldon Road with their children in the morning. Please be advised that this is an unsafe and illegal practice that puts people in harms way. I have advised our RCMP Liaison Officer to watch for this in the future. Please help us to make the roads around Cleveland as safe as they can possibly be.

USED BOOK SALE

The Used Book Sale has been postponed to the week of April 19th, 2010.

GO FOR GOLD! Annual Cheque Drive

One more week for the chance to reach GOLD! Thanks to all those who have donated so far, our Cleveland skier is out of the gate and headed for silver (check out the parent board in the front foyer of the school). Although we are targeting to raise the remaining $10,000 needed for the playground upgrade, our goal for this year's campaign is family participation. For every family donation made, our Cleveland skier will move closer to the finish line. Kids, take those recyclables in & complete your chores! Every dollar counts! Our annual donations/cheque drive is the cornerstone of our fundraising efforts. We hope that you will take the time to review the playground proposal and consider a donation. Participation is, of course, completely voluntary. The playground proposal can be found in the CPAC Finance section of the school website along with a donation form to download:

Vancouver Olympics 2010

I loved watching the Olympics with my dad and mom on the TV. I think the Olympics changed me because I have been trying my best in my favourite sport, hockey! I have been living my dream. I have been playing with a positive attitude in all of my sports. Quatchi, Sumi, Miga and Muk-Muk rock!

Olympics

Hope, excitement! The best, maybe the worst.
Lots of moods, sometimes sadness and anger.
Lots of joy and happiness. The Olympics 2010.

My Olympic Dream

The Olympics have changed me because now I have a dream. I dream about me on the top of the mountain in the Olympics. I just got down the hill and Canada wins Gold! It was in our home town. I was so happy! It was my first Olympics. All the Canadians were cheering when I was on the podium. They played Canada's anthem. I was singing my country's anthem. I heard a little girl say, "I want to be a skier in the Olympics". I made that little girl have a dream like no other, to be in the Olympics.

The Olympics are here, they are finally here! The Olympics are a dream all around the world. Every little kid dreams of participating in the Olympics. Everyone loves the Olympics. They love the intensity when one team does better than the other. Everyone cheers for a different country, whether it is somewhere in Europe, North America, or where-ever. During the Olympics, the streets are busy with people going to all the events.

The Olympics are in Vancouver. It has changed the spirit of Vancouver. I have never seen downtown so wild. The music just fills the air. I get to know my family better. Today, I am going to go downtown with my family and grand-parents. I am going to cheer on the athletes. Love is the spirit of the Olympics. My sister and I watch the games together. My dad and I watch the games on the TV.

The Olympics in Vancouver and Whistler

Wow! This is amazing. It has changed my life forever. It is the memory of a lifetime. It has sent dreams into every little kid's hearts. These are the Olympics that everyone will remember, the ones with hockey games so loud on your TV and people chanting "Go, Canada, Go". We score, we soar! These are the Olympics when we win Gold!
