

Today's Announcements Friday November 20th, 2009

- Attention all grade 8 & 9 rugby players: A reminder to bring your uniforms to room #300 today at lunch along with your money and order form for the team dinner that is taking place on Monday.
- Attention Junior Jazz Choir Boys – lunch rehearsal today – bring your lunch to the choir room.
- Reminder to Senior Vocal Ensemble Women's sectional today at lunch.
- Attention all girls basketball players: There will be a very important meeting for all players on Monday after school in the large gym.
- Junior Boys Soccer Team, you have a game day meeting today at lunch. Please meet at the usual spot.
- Any Grade 10 & 11 students interested in going to Nice, France next July? Meet at lunch on Tuesday November 24th in room 104, Royer's lair.
- Attention all grade 9 band students. You must see Mr. O or Mr. Smith today for a very important notice.
- The Bantam Girls Gold Volleyball Team finished their season last night with a tough loss to Windsor 14-16 in the third game. The team worked hard and beat Burnaby North and McMath 2 games to zero. The coaches would like to thank the players for all their hard work and dedication throughout the year. The Gold Team finished first on the North Shore and Second at the Vancouver & Districts Great Season Girls!

- Schools for Africa is hosting a Talent Show on December 10th and wants to see what Argyle's student body has got to offer! If you think you have what it takes, STAND out for the invisible and come to the Choir room Monday, November 23rd for auditions! They will be held after school on Monday! This could be your big break!
- Attention all Grads. You must sign-up for Grad photos next week, Monday to Friday, in the counseling centre.
