

Today's Announcements Wednesday November 18th, 2009

- Schools for Africa is hosting a Talent Show on December 10th and wants to see what Argyle's student body has got to offer! If you think you have what it takes, STAND out for the invisible and come to the Choir room Monday, November 23rd for auditions! They will be held after school on Monday! This could be your big break!
- Attention Argyle Sound & Lighting Crew: There will be a brief meeting in the band room at the start of lunch today. All members please attend.
- Attention all Grads. You must sign-up for Grad photos next week, Monday to Friday, in the counseling centre.
- Reminder to all staff and students of the mandatory homeroom at 1:00pm today for distribution of Parent/Teacher Interview schedules.
- Congratulations Jr. Boys Soccer Team on a terrific season. Yesterday the team came from behind twice and defeated Burnaby South 3-2 in the V&D Championships. Well done!
- Reminder of the meeting at lunch for student helpers for Parent/Teacher Interview room 300.
- Olympics hiring form on Thursday November 19th 2-4pm at the One Stop Career Shop for Youth located at the foot of Chesterfield in North Vancouver.
- Come one! Come all! Art club is hosting a bake sale and raffle today at lunch. Come to the cafeteria for goodies and a chance to win an art basket filled with supplies. That's today at lunch.

- Anyone interested in joining gymnastics must be at the mandatory meeting and practice today at 3:00pm in the small gym.
